What's new?

We have a new National Park

---

Visit a botanical garden in spring? Sure!
But how about a visit in autumn?
Because did you know that Meise's Botanical Garden (one of Europe's largest) is beautiful and lush all year round? Colourful leaves and mushrooms can be seen everywhere in the Botanic Garden. It's also the time to take a look in the WOODlab, the ideal place to go in rainy weather. 🍂

Yay, we have a new National Park! 🤩 Just as they are adorning themselves in the first autumn colours, 'De Brabantse Wouden' received their recognition as a National Park. Time for a nice autumn walk through the Brabant Forests that are spread over an area from Leuven, with Meerdal forest, across the Sonian Forest and into the Hallerbos!
